

Figure S1. Correlation of glioma cell density and MET uptake on PET. Tumor cell density is plotted as a function of the tumor-to-normal tissue ratio of MET accumulation. A linear regression analysis was performed. These two factors showed a positive correlation ($P < 0.0001$) with a Pearson's correlation r value of 0.72. PET, positron emission tomography.

