

Figure S1. Hematoxylin and eosin staining of the diffuse growth of xenografts and the corresponding original tumors. Similar to the corresponding original tumors, 6 cases of diffuse growth xenografts did not exhibit a clear boundary with the normal brain tissue. Boundaries of the original tumors were only observed in the surgical specimens of cases 1 and 4.

