

Figure S1. Negative control for immunohistochemistry staining. The negative control staining for cadherin 11 protein in gastric cancer was detected under a light microscope (magnification, x200).

