

Figure S1. Clinical features of patient 2 at age 2 years and 4 months. Hypertelorism, broad nasal bridge, pointed chin, prominent nasal tip and uplifted earlobes with a central depression are signs of facial abnormalities presenting in patients with Mowat-Wilson syndrome.

