

Figure S1. Survival curve at 6 months after surgical resection was performed by median. High serum Wilms tumor 1-271 IgM levels tended to associate with unfavorable clinical outcome in the six months after the surgical resection. The P-value was obtained using a Log-Rank test.

