

Figure S1. An example of normal skin above the melanoma. The normal skin exhibits negative staining for the P53 antibody.

